MISSOULA--

Randall J. Rea (pronounced Ray), Scobey, a graduate of the University of Montana in Missoula, has been accepted to study under the WAMI medical training program.

The program includes students from Washington, Alaska, Montana and Idaho who study medicine through the University of Washington School of Medicine, Seattle.

Under the WAMI program, Rea will attend classes for one year beginning this fall at Montana State University, Bozeman. After completing studies at MSU, he will attend the UW School of Medicine.

The 24-year-old Scobey man, who received the bachelor of arts degree in psychology in June 1975 at UM, has been employed as an orderly at Missoula Community Hospital and has taken postgraduate science courses at UM.

Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reasy T. Rea of Scobey, is a June 1970 graduate of Scobey Public High School. The elder Rea is postmaster in Scobey.
